Course offerings with Mawlana Aamir Motiwala
Fall 2022: Sept 6 to Dec 18, 2022

PCA101: Arabic 101

[Weeknight] Tuesdays, 8p to 9:30p

[Weekend]   Sundays, 1p to 2:30p

Mawlana Aamir Motiwala

This course introduces students to Arabic morphology (ṣarf) and Arabic syntax (naḥw) concurrently with practical application of newly learned concepts through various Quranic verses and Hadith.

Morphology: Students will potentially learn all the categories of regular verb forms (mujarrad). In one semester, through the study of morphology students will be able to derive over 70 meanings of any regular verb which will be multiplied each semester.

Syntax: Students will be introduced to the essentials of Arabic syntax through the instructor's lectures with textual study and supplementary exercise questions. By the end of the course, students will have the introductory knowledge of the science of syntax and will be able to identify declinable (muʿrab) and indeclinable (mabnī) words while also gaining a general knowledge of grammatical states of words in the Arabic language.

PCI198: 99 Names of Allah

[Weeknight] Tuesdays, 7p to 8p

[Weekend]   Sundays, 9:30a to 10:30a

Mawlana Aamir Motiwala

Using Al-Imam Al-Ghazali's al-Maqṣad al-Asmāʾ, a short treatise on the names of Allah, as a guide this class will discuss the deeper meanings of Allah's most beautiful names. In addition, this class will teach students how to practically connect to Allah through each of His names.

PCI198: Duas in the Qurʾān

[Weeknight] Wednesdays, 7p to 8p

[Weekend]   Sundays, 11a to 12p

Mawlana Aamir Motiwala

This course will cover selected supplications from the Qurʾān and extract the deeper meanings from them. Over the span of the course, the student will not only learn supplications, but will also have a deeper appreciation for them.
